General Carter:

STAT
Mr. Elder sent this in to you. We forwarded the original to Legislative Counsel and a copy to Personnel for action. Due to heavy volume of correspondence addressed to CIA by Congressman Broyhill's office, OGC suggests they handle this in routine way, which is: Mr. Echols will sign a letter to  inviting him to contact personnel officer at 16th Street and come in for interview. A copy of that letter will be sent to Congressman Broyhill with covering letter thanking him very much for bringing this to our attention. You will be kept informed of the outcome of this case if you so desire. Legislative Counsel feels that you would be kept very busy just signing letters to Congressman Broyhill if you or Mr. McCone get into the picture by signing this one. Do you have any objection to this being handled by them routinely? NO

Do you wish to be kept informed in this case? Only if in Chapo
